Dear Dr. Burleigh:

I am submitting an application for membership in the U. E. Loyalty Association and enclosing the fee.

The answer came today in the Christian name of George's 99 grandchildren, John Brown and Mary Richardson. I didn't know that Lenny forgot their correct names and passed on her name to another relative, Lila Payne.
Another cousin, William Brown, had the correct names & it was she who gave them to the Belleville family.

William, Lila and Lillian are first cousins,
and all grand-daughters of Anna Maria Brown (daughter of John Brown & Mary Richardson).

I am compiling their family tree and I think they will help me a little quicker now that we have joined the U. E. L. Assoc. Lila has kept a great deal but it is slow work.

The Fairbairns came to Canada about 1755-57 and settled in N. Dumfries, Waterloo Co.
I have searched along many trails and cannot learn where they came from. One of the daughters-in-law told me they had a brother Lowland, a Scot. She also said they had lived in Ireland & moved to Scotland — don't know what generation, or year.

John Sr. only noted a family and I cannot locate a will.
 I tried sending to Detroit Immigration Office for information re. Thomas Baird's naturalization papers but evidently wrote to the wrong office.

The Detroit Police gave me dates about Tom's son, George, who had been a detective for many years. I must try asking the police for the correct office for naturalization information. They were very kind to me.

As you can see, my Baird family had nothing to do with Hastings County - unless the 4 missing boys were there.

However, I have information re. Brockville, Ontario. It might be useful to you - or in a paper somewhere.

David Baird, an Edinburgh man, came to Canada as a young man and became a doctor and in Brockville, Ontario. He married a Brockville woman and had 2 children.

The first wife died and he married Catherine Mulford, daughter of the late Senator Mulford. They moved in 1855 to Temagami, Ontario. Last 3 children were born in Temagami.

Children of David and first wife:

David Baird, born 1798, died 1878, aged 80. He was the first of the Baird family in Canada. He was a doctor and a merchant. He was married to Catherine Mulford, daughter of the late Senator Mulford. They moved to Temagami, Ontario in 1855. Last 3 children were born in Temagami.

Children of David and Catherine:

1. James - Heritage Co. Prairie
2. John - Toronto

3. Carrie - Mrs James Robertson of Tecumseh

4. James - b. 1855 in Brockville. School teacher. Went to Madison in '10 to the beach. Married. daughter named Katherine. He came from Glasgow in 1857, stayed in Toronto a year then went to Madison. Long stay in same family for 4 generations. over 90 yrs. son Robert Patterson b. in Canada 1903, aged 90 now, a very fine man.

5. Ellie

6. Annie

7. Victoria

b. in Tecumseh.

Extract from 1880 Dominion Atlas:

"James Baird of Tecumseh is of A.I. Loyalist descent. His grandfather went to flee to Canada from Cornwall, is buried in Appleton Township Upper Canada in 1773 where he was later joined by his family. His father was Jonathan."

James was born near Brockville in 1780, came to Tecumseh in 1853 and father Jonathan came 1856.

James married twice: first to Elizabeth, dau. of David Scott, son of Brockville, secondly to Annie C. dau. of James Thurn of Marysburgh.

(David b. in April 1798 - d. Aug. 15th 1871)

(Katherine Baird d. Mar. 2nd 1907 - aged 86 yrs.)

Isabella Fairbairn - d. Nov. 25th 1861 - age 117 yrs.

Maudie H. Fairbairn - d. Aug. 11th 1883 - 37 yrs. 4 mos 16 days (wife of Robert Scott)

These bodies are buried in Tecumseh cemetery. I don't know who is a bell or Maudie were, but they were in the family plot.

This is skimpy information & I cannot vouch for its correctness in all details.

Last year I called B. Fairbairns in the Toronto telephone directory just for fun. One of them happened to be a son of John (see top of this page) and he was so interested we talked for over half an hour. He has information he has collected about Fairbairns & the Armstrongs.

1940
Crowes descent from Geo & Kate Fairbairn who were born about 1800
1945 on Robt b. 1861 & Catherine Scott

How I intended to go on with the Bureau. Can you suggest how to write for details? What churches?
Any business associated historical societies?

What do you think of that North American Historical Society in Calgary? They wrote to some Bruce County Museum & I was asked to reply.
I made the point that the Society was just starting something then was no fee stated as if it had not been accepted.
